

WHAT RIVER CRUISING DOES THAT EVERY OTHER KIND OF TRAVEL CANNOT.

The most underrated joy of river cruising? You only unpack once. Every morning, you wake up in a new city, yet your favorite things and that familiar view are exactly where you left them. The world moves, but you stay settled.

For the traveler who has spent one too many nights repacking a suitcase in a hotel room at 11 PM –this alone makes the conversation worthwhile. But the logistics are just the beginning. What a well-matched river cruise actually offers is a true sense of place.

These rivers aren't just scenery—they are the original highways of civilization. Sailing the Rhone or the Rhine isn't a scenic diversion; it's a history lesson told at the gentle pace of the current.

THE WORLD MOVES, BUT YOU STAY SETTLED.

How about following Van Gogh down the Rhone? He lived in Arles for a feverish, brilliant year, and while his 'Yellow House' is gone, the light remains identical—that golden Provencal glow that turns ordinary walls to gold and makes shadows turn a sharp, beautiful purple.

Just a short walk away lies Les Alyscamps—the ancient Roman necropolis that Van Gogh and Gauguin painted side-by-side. It is a quiet, shaded path lined with stone sarcophagi and towering cypress trees, offering a peaceful retreat that feels entirely disconnected from the modern world. Here, history isn't behind glass; it's right under your feet.

BARB'S PRO TIP: IF YOU'RE SAILING THE RHONE, GRAB A SEAT ON THE TOP DECK AS YOU APPROACH AVIGNON. THE VIEW OF THE PONT D'AVIGNON FROM THE WATER IS SOMETHING YOU'LL NEVER FORGET.

What the Right River Cruise Does to the Way You Travel

Choosing the right river and the right ship is a personal decision. If you're ready to find the journey that matches your pace, let's have a conversation. I'd love to help you see the world a little differently.
